SWINDLING. - A white man named Charles Nugent, alias Stanton, yesterday evening entered the store of Michael Harlow, in company ker preached a very able sermon, on the Diwhich could only be opened in one particular the ministry, which was listened to with eviway, known to the parties having the box in dent pleasure, by a large congregation. In the charge. A bet of $10 was offered that Harlow could not raise the lid, which was accepted, Stanton having giving H. instructions privately, while the negro was out. The money was delivered the diplomas to the four gentlemen placed in Stanton's hand, and upon Harlow opening the box, the negro grabbed the money, but was seized by Harlow, who was in turn grasped by Staunton, and overpowered and beaten by the two accomplices. Stanton was arrested and taken before Justice Beach who committed him for trial on the charge of robbery.

THE REGISTRATION IN FAIRFAX.—We have been requested by Lieut. Sheild, the President of the Board of Registers of Fairfax county, to correct a statement which appeared in the Gazette, over the signature of Virginia, in relation to the loss of time at Vienna. No "dodge" was attempted to be practiced, but the difficulty grew out of a failure to receive a sufficient number of blank forms of the oath required, and for which requisition after requisition had been made on the proper authorities at Richmond, but without success. The President and the Board are anxious that all entitled should register, and have acted with impartiality, but in the absence of the blanks delays and difficulties will arise for which they cannot be held responsible.

AGENT OF ADAMS' EXPRESS COMPA-NY. -Robert W. Falls, who for several years prior to the war, was the agent, in this city, of Adams' Express Company, and who by urbane manners and fine business qualifications rendered himself deservedly popular, has been holders manifest more firmness and less disposition to press sales. There is some demand for shipment to the West Indies, both for Flour W. W. Dungan, who has resigned, and who it is said will take the management of the Alexandria Canal, and superintend the construction of the Aqueduct. Mr. Falls takes charge of the Express Office on Monday. Mr. Dungan, during his term of service, as the Agent of the Company, has been an active and efficient officer, and given satisfaction to the public.

> PROPERTY RECOVERED .- The watch stolen a short time ago, when the store of Messrs. Davy & Harmon, was robbed, has been found in the possession of one of the persons arrested for being concerned in the robbery of Messrs. Blacklock & Co's., store. It will be remembered that the store of Mr. Harrie Hough, and the restaurant of Mr. Augur were robbed about that time, and that all these burglaries were committed by resorting very nearly to the same means employed to get in to the store at the Ferry Slip. As far as ascertained the robberies here recently have been perpetrated by "gangs" not by single thieves.

> Board of Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, held yesterday morning, the directors renewed their contract with Lewis G. Stanhope for the completion of dam No. 5, so as to insure sale navigation. The present directors have made a contract for the reconstruction of the lock and dam at Rock Creek, to be completed by the first day of September next. This will afford the Alexandria people an opportunity to proceed by means of tugs. We are glad to hear this, as it will enable the coal trade to be, at least, partially resumed and the trunk of the Aqueduct shall have been rebuilt.

> RAILROADS TO WASHINGTON.—The surveys on the Baltimore and Potomac railroad have been completed, the route finally located, and the stakes designating the grades are being driven along the entire line. The contracts for the work will be given out in about four weeks. The work on the Washington end of the Metropolitan railroad is being prosecuted with commendable energy.

> A STOLEN HORSE.-L. Gentzberger was arrested this morning, and taken before Justice Moore, for having in his possession a horse claimed as the property of Richard Munford, of the county. CORN, - The offerings of corn at the Exchange show a continued falling off in the receipts which, for the week, from all sources, will hard ly exceed 10,000 bushels.
